

*e*VALUate Teaching Evaluation Report

This report is generated and made available to the teacher who requested the Teaching Evaluation. An extract of this report that contains quantitative data related to the seven teaching performance domains is also provided to Heads of School for the purposes of Workplace Planning and Performance Reviews.

Limitations. This report is only generated when there is more than one student enrolled in the unit in which the teaching evaluation was requested, and when there were at least two student responses for that teaching evaluation. This approach balances the principles student anonymity and feedback to staff for practice improvement.

Confidentiality. Data provided in this report is confidential. Student comments that relate to other staff members in this report should be considered confidential by the staff member receiving this report. Such comments must not be communicated, transmitted or discussed with any student or staff member.

Please comment on Benchawan Wiwatanapataphee's teaching strengths.

Her passion for the unit and her students

Having a super friendly and approachable lecture was definitely a highlight of this unit. She was always available to ask questions and to make us smile when we were all tired and stressed. Also her jokes are awesome!

Subject knowledge and interesting anecdotes.

Please comment on how you think Benchawan Wiwatanapataphee might improve the teaching and learning in this unit.

Could speak a little clearer.

I can't think of anything

My only criticism was the first assignment I only got an "excellent" and even though I was happy with the mark I felt like I wanted a bit more feedback, as the unit progresses so I can improve.
